Handout Notes
A Very Good Design - Week 1 - Did God Actually Say?
Pastor Ben Bufkin
January 13, 2019

"In the absence of proper vigilance, the institution of the family is sustaining losses that threaten its very existence." -Dr. James Dobson-

Ephesians 5:22-6:4, Genesis 1:27-31, Genesis 3:1-7 English Standard Version

1. God's Words cannot be trusted.

Genesis 3:1

God defines marriage as being between one man and one woman.
Genesis 2:18-25

Love and marriage cannot be limited to a narrow definition and expression.

Marriage is a one-flesh union that is a life-long covenant.
Genesis 2:24, Mark 10:9, Matthew 19:6

Marriage is a contract that we enter into and a relationship based upon preference and performance.

Sex was designed by God to be enjoyed within the context of Biblical marriage.
Genesis 1:28, 1 Corinthians 6:9-11, 1 Corinthians 6:18

Sexual pleasure is the pinnacle of our existence.

Psalm 19:7-11

2. There are no consequences for rebelling against God's Commands.

Genesis 3:2-4, Galatians 6:7-8, Genesis 3:8-9, Numbers 32:23 New International Version, Genesis 3:7 English Standard Version, Genesis 3:21, Philippians 3:8-9

3. God is withholding something good from us.

Genesis 3:5, Psalm 84:11, Matthew 6:33, Matthew 7:7-11, Genesis 3:6, 1 John 2:15-17